Department of Music Presents

David F. Coleman, director and composer, is a Lecturer of Music at Tufts University and the director of the Tufts Third Day Gospel Choir. He holds a Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance and composition from Boston University, 1993, and a Master of Arts degree in composition from Tufts, 2001. He is also the Director of Choral Music at the Dana Hall School, and has been actively involved in gospel music for more than 25 years, including as founder of Confirmation, a gospel ensemble that has recorded five CDs of his original work. David has performed in Austria, Greece, Italy, Spain, and here at home at the White House, House of Blues, the Wang Center, and at Symphony Hall with the Boston Pops. He is the music director and rehearsal pianist for productions at the American Repertory Theater, including 2012 Tony Award winning The Gerharts' Porgy and Bess. He has worked with choirs for Bobby McFerrin, Patti Labelle, Phish, and Academy Award Nominee Ryan Gosling. David also leads workshops for the American Choral Directors Association, and is the 2007 recipient of the Thomas A. Dorsey Award from the New England Conservatory. In 2013, he won Best Male Gospel Artist, Best Gospel CD, and Best Gospel Producer at the New England Urban Music Awards.
